dedications

To you, Miss McEnery, the Senior Class owes much. It is with deep regret that we see you leave, for you have touched and bettered the lives of all of us. We shall not soon forget you, and with affection we wish you happiness in the future.

In dedicating our Pericon to you, Mr. McCann, we hope to express our appreciation for all you have done. For many years you have unselfishly given of your time and effort, and many are the students who have turned to "Coach" for aid. Your kindness and patience have helped many, you will long be remembered by all of us after we have gone.

headmaster's message

TO THE CLASS OF 1956—

It is always somewhat hazardous to write in March an appraisal of the year's accomplishments of a senior class. Since the record is incomplete, predictions are necessary, and predictions have been known to backfire.

To date, I am happy to say, there is evidence to indicate that you are well on your way to a fine year. You have made an excellent start, picking up your responsibilities with gusto and good cheer. You have tackled significant new projects and are working toward the solution of several problems of adjustment to the new school which carried over from last year. If you continue with the spirit and energy which you have displayed thus far, your record should be very good indeed.

On the strength of your efforts to date I feel justified in predicting that, by the end of this year, thanks largely to your sincere interest, thoughtful leadership, and good example there will exist in the upper school a new understanding of what we mean by "citizenship," "loyalty" and "school spirit." I am not referring so much to your work on the definitions for these terms, or the rewriting of the Student Council Constitution, as to the infinitely more difficult task of transmitting the idea behind the definitions to the student body, and of helping individuals as well as the group to put the theory into practice.

If my forecast is justified by the outcome, we will have a great deal to thank you for, and you, in turn, will have reason to be proud of your achievement. May your accomplishments here augur well for your future success.

None of us can study history without falling under the spell of Mediaeval Times "when knighthood was in flower." Whether it be tournaments and jousts, or chivalry, there is something compelling about the Age; however, should our mediaeval ancestors be placed in our century, they might find that life has not changed as much as it would appear. In fact, they might discover that life at Grosse Pointe University School, although different in outward appearance, is basically quite similar to days of old.

The biggest job of the Student Council has been the revision of the Constitution. Much time and effort has been spent in the hope of creating a successful and lasting Constitution. The Council has been active in other fields and is responsible for providing buses to the Basketball games, as well as sponsoring a dance in the Fall. Another project the Council undertook was the sale of emblems with the school crest. Under the leadership of Sally McHenry and Jay Fitzgerald, the Student Council has run smoothly and efficiently.

Lords

and

Ladies

MARTHA MACKAY ADAM

'52-'56

Our Martha is a quiet girl
 And yet, in spite of it,
 There's nothing somber in her ways,
 So full of fun and wit.
 She has a ready cheerfulness,
 And help for one and all;
 For those of less ability —
 They only have to call.

BARBARA LOUISE BEAM

'54-'56

Poor Kingswood lost and our school gained,
 When Barb'ra joined our group;
 Her lusty vigor changed our cheers
 Into a roaring whoop.
 She has a friendliness for all
 And genuine appeal;
 Withal, a deep sincerity,
 She makes us know is real.

BARBARA HARRINGTON BISHOP

'49-'56

Barb'ra Bishop is well liked,
Because she's such a worker.
In Council and Athletic fields,
She never was a shirker.
Aside from that, her attributes
Are many and they're varied.
Troubles never bother her —
She simply won't be harried.

VELDA KAY CARTER

'51-'56

Kay Carter's been a busy girl;
The Class of Fifty-six
Gave her so many things to do
She had to learn some tricks;
As how to make an hour do
When three, at least, were needed.
In retrospect, she wonders how
She possibly succeeded.

MELISSA LEE COLLINS

'50-'56

Melissa, on the playing field,
 Could always cut the ice.
 She's very popular because,
 Oh well, — just 'cause she's nice;
 "And different too," as all remark,
 When talking of this minx.
 "Then, on the other hand," they say,
 "Now this one really thinks."

JULIE ELIZABETH CUDLIP

'42-'56

She's so well travelled and informed,
 Our pretty Julie Cudlip;
 If she were wanted for affairs—
 "Oh no, she's on a trip."
 But, when at home, she sure made up
 For all her tripping ways.
 She's always done her share with verve,
 Without expecting praise.

SAMUEL DALRYMPLE DAUME

'50-'56

Athletic Council's President
Was good in class or sports.
Sam Daume's great in all he does,
And humorist, of sorts.
But, most of all, he's very liked
By all of those who know him.
No difficulties get him down,
Or situations throw him.

ELIZABETH GRACE DAVIS

'46-'56

Buffy's such a scatter-brain,
But loved by ev'ryone.
She never seems to know just what's Important to get done.
But somehow she gets done what has
To be done ev'ry day,
And life's road will be fun for her,
Along her care-free way.

HELEN JEAN DODENHOFF

'47-'56

Jean Dodenhoff's the answer to
Each school's scholastic prayer.
For when it came to top of class,
She usually was there.
In ways of popularity,
She also was well versed,
And never very far behind
The one who might be first.

HELEN STRICKLAND ECCLESTONE

'43-'56

Lollie was our President;
A first-class organizer.
Efficiency? 'Twas often heard,
"I just don't recognize her."
The lack of recognition was
'Cause she was kind of flighty.
However, each of us agrees
That she was mighty mighty.

'53-'54; Senior Show '55; Bake Sales '54; Script Committee '56; Fashion Show '56.

JOHN MATHER FINLAYSON

'49-'56

John Finlayson, it is said,
Is quite a diplomat.
He always knows just what to say,
No matter where he's at.
Good luck, or bad, he takes in stride
And anything, he'll try.
The vote's unanimous that he
Is really quite a guy.

CONSTANCE MARIE FINN

'52-'56

This classmate is a maid of moods
But usually quite cheerful,
And nearly always gave us such
A cheerful little ear-full.
The cheerer-upper of the Class
Was thoughtful Connie Finn.
Without her influence on us,
There'd hardly been a grin.

JAMES ARTHUR FITZGERALD

'51-'56

Ol' Jay Fitzgerald is the tops—
Dependable, no less.
He seemed to work 'most all the time,
This Student Council Pres.
He really was efficient in
His several trying jobs.
And this should be enough of praise,
Except, he's liked — just gobs.

LYLAS HEIDI GOOD

'52-'56

Lylas Good is very nice
And also always busy.
Her out-of-school activities
Made most of us feel dizzy.
She's happy and, in dancing,
She just really tops the list.
The world's all right, she always thinks—
This charming optimist.

JAMES PATRICK GORMAN

'55-'56

Jim Gorman surely fitted in
With us, 'though new this year.
It seems he's always been a part
Of good old GPUS dear.
We're sure Jim's liked by ev'ryone,
For friendliness and wit;
Also, he takes whatever comes
And makes the best of it.

Statistician Varsity '56.

MURRAY JAMES GREEN

'54-'56

Wise-cracking Murray Green loves fun
And always likes to kid,
But doesn't let the day escape
With goodly talents hid'.
He cheered us up when we were glum,
And cheered when we were gay.
Hit witticisms make us smile—
We love his carefree way.

CAROL ANN HENRY

'48-'56

Carol Henry's lots of fun
 And never has to grope.
 She did her share of ev'rything,
 But mostly Periscope.
 She's just the kind of girl one feels
 They simply have to know.
 We envy her exuberance—
 She's always on the go.

JOAN-ELLIS HILL

'43-'56

Good natured Jody Hill was liked
 By ev'ryone at school
 So kidding her relentlessly
 Somehow became the rule.
 Of course, she is so affable
 It never seemed to matter
 As she pursued her joyous way,
 With her infectious chatter.

GEORGE GILBERT JEROME

'52-'56

Now George Jerome is versatile.
A worker, seldom slowing.
He gives his help to ev'ryone;
He's also easy going.
For all his talents and his work,
He never looks for praise.
If he keeps on the way he is,
He'll really set a blaze.

AVERY LYNN KIMERLY

'43-'56

Pert Av'ry gave her willing help
In all there was to do,
And consequently ev'ryone
Imposed upon her too.
She always finds the better side
And never looks for guile
But, principally, Ave's cherished for
Her devastating smile.

RUSSELL JEROME LANGS

'50-'56

Russ Langs is loyal to school and friends;
Great ath-e-letic spirit.
(The line above will cause dismay,
If teachers see or hear it.)
But anyway, Langs' attitude
In general's pretty neat.
The petty things in life won't tend
To slow this fellow's beat.

HAROLD RAYNSFORD STARK LANGS

'54-'56

Stark Langs is yet another one.
(They're distantly related.)
He's quite a student and well liked;
One hears it often stated.
If there is something humorous,
Ol' Stark's the boy who buys it.
And he sings bass quite lustily.
At least, we know he tries it.

'50-'56

While George Mack isn't very tall,
He's ten feet high in spirit.
He's also musical, we think
Whenever we can hear it.
He's most unselfish and well liked
And has a goodly score
Of solid friendships he has made
By acts we thank him for.

ELISABETH STEIWER McELVENNY

'50-'56

Libeth is the kind of girl
Who's simply indispensable.
Now how can so much value be
So charmingly condensable?
Our treasury was always full
With this efficient miser.
A worker, student . . . friendly too . . .
No wonder, that we prized her.

SALLY RENAUD McHENRY

'44-'56

McHenry used to make us hump,
To keep abreast of her
And lots of us fell far behind,
For who could long endure
The whirlwind of activity,
Of our vivacious Sal?
A live-wire in the school or out—
A pretty peppy gal.

BERTIL LENNART OSBECK

'44-'53, '53-'56

Bert Osbeck is well noted for
His fine athletic flair.
As student he was near the top—
In fact, 'most always there.
He's popular and also plays—
Divinely — the piano.
And almost all the gals have said,
"Oh golly, what a man-o!"

DOROTHY SHEILA PETROSKY

'54-'56

Petrosky is a pleasant girl,
Whom ev'ryone calls Dot;
A very easy one to know
And also like a lot.
She's only been with us two years,
The which increased our score
Of people it is fun to know.
Can one say any more?

THOMAS DAVID PURDY

'53-'56

Tom Purdy sweeps the playing field,
And leaves but few intact.
If some opponent doesn't give,
He's apt to come unpacked.
But on the field, or off, he's nice;
He's popular — sincere.
He makes good friends at ev'ry turn
And keeps them year to year.

LUCINDA ROSE ROGERS

'43-'56

Cinda Rogers is a girl
 Who kept good grades by working.
 If we had emulated her,
 There'd been a lot less shirking.
 Aside from that, she's popular,
 In ways which are specific;
 And when it comes to verse or prose
 She's simply . . . well, terrific.

MICHAEL ROBERT RYAN

'55-'56

Mike Ryan's new — from Buffalo;
 Our gain, at Bison's cost.
 He was accepted by us all,
 Without a moment lost.
 He has a subtle humor, rare,
 Which sneaks up on the Class.
 And (confidentially, you know)
 He devastates each lass.

GEORGIA EDWARDS SCHENCK

'49-'56

Georgia Schenck worked constantly,
As Council President.
The way she went to bat for us,
Sure made us well content.
As she was fair, in ev'ry way,
She earned a high respect.
But with her talents what could we,
Or Faculty, expect?

VIRGINIA SCHNECK

'54-'56

Ginny Schneck has made her mark
In two years of our schooling.
Artistic and determined too,
She get's there without fooling.
She often goes to Mexico—
A charming Senorita—
And must show up the native gals,
For who could be more sweet-a?

Barb'ra Shover's name applies
 As though it rhymed with cover,
 Because in all her work it shows
 She's certainly a shover.
 To top her off — she's capable
 And never does complain,
 So, with such attributes, why should
 She ever fail to gain?

DAVID HUNTER STROTHER IV

'49-'56

Dave Strother is a student who
 Sure covers all the ground.
 He always looks for better phrase,
 In case there's one around.
 He seldom leaves an argument
 To hang on supposition.
 This guy, without a doubt, will be
 Some kind of statistician.

SHIRLEY ANN STUMM

'53-'56

Our Shirley Stumm is little,
But a better word's petite,
With all its connotation of
Nice, clever, cute and neat.
She dances with an ecstacy.
That leaves of all a-gasping
And with her liveliness and wit,
What more could man be asking?

CHARLES MICHAEL WATSON

'54-'56

While Watson likes the fun in life—
Oh boy! He's scientific.
Since figures are his special forte,
In math, Chuck's just terrific.
He'll prob'ly help the Government
In some atomic mission.
Let's hope the old world doesn't end
By going ala-fission.

 A friendly, laughing student.
 He's loyal to friends and school alike
 And pretty dogoned prudent.
 He is the type one likes around
 When things get kind of tough,
 Because he helps you realize
 That life is not so rough.

 And this applies to all.

 But we have had a ball.
 However, in sincerity—
 We want the school to know
 Our gratitude can't be expressed.
 We love you — now we go.

THE CLASS OF 1956

THE FORWARD LOOK '56

wraps up the idea of go in one clean front-to-back sweep!

Millions of Americans have now seen the five all-new cars of THE FORWARD LOOK '56 — Plymouth, Dodge, De Soto, Chrysler and Imperial.

Their judgment and their hearts tell them: here are cars that must be wonderful to drive, to ride in, to be seen in!

Take a good look yourself. Compare these cars with any new cars today—from any standpoint . . . in any price class.

What catches your eye first is THE FLIGHT-SWEEP—the freshest new note in car design. From jutting headlight to crisply upswept tail, this simple, clean line says power and motion! This is design that borrows from tomorrow!

Look at the people driving these cars, their faces tell you they know they couldn't have made a better choice!

See how they get into "Drive"—they just press a button of the new Pushbutton PowerFlite! See how they go—with the finest new engines: more powerful, more efficient, more economical. See how smoothly they ride—with an all-road comfort in a class by itself. See how easily they stop with new braking systems unequaled for sureness and ease. See how effortlessly they steer—with Safety Touch Power Steering that works all the time, not part time.

You'll see new safety too—for THE FORWARD LOOK '56 brings you the best-made bodies and frames . . . new Life-Guard door latches that are the safest you can have around you . . . and Safety Seat Belts, if you wish.

Visit your dealer soon. In THE FORWARD LOOK '56 cars you'll discover a new kind of riding and driving pleasure!

We have had many great days to together
 this year and I wish you would stay around next year so you could ride in my Austin Healy-100. It will be pretty nice dating Jane in it but theres one trouble she won't be here next year. She doesn't seem to know how much I like her.

Your great pal. HHH
